LL PARTIES in want of a good EYELET A MACHINE, are strongly recommended to use none but LIPMAN'S PATENT IMPRO-VED, which is decidedly the best ever brought before the public, possessing numerous advantages, viz. It is strong durable, and not liable to get out of order. It punches the hole well, and to fit the Evelet, and in one operation clinches the Eyelet on both sides. It saves time, as the papers, &c., need not be reversed, nor turned over to clinch the Eyelet a second time as is the case with all other Machines. MISCELLANEOUS READING. DAILY WORK-BY CHARLES MACKAY. Who lags from dread of daily work, And his appointed task would shirk, Commits a folly and a crime;

A soulless slave-A paltry knave-A clog upon the wheels of time. With work to do and store of health, The man's unworthy to be free, Who will not give, That he may live. His daily toil for daily fee.

No! let us work! We only ask Reward proportioned to our task: We have no quarrel with the great-No feud with rank-With mill or bank-No envy of a lord's estate. If we can earn sufficient store To satisfy our daily need,

For age and pain, A fraction, we are rich indeed. No dread of toil have we or ours, We know our worth and weigh our powers;

And can retain.

The more we work, the more we win; Success to trade! Success to spade! And to the corn that's coming in! And joy to him who o'er his task Remembers toil is nature's plan; Who, working, thinks, And never sinks

His independence as a MAN! Who only asks for humblest wealth, Enough for competence and health; And leisure when his work is done To read his book

By chimney nook, Or stroll at setting of the sun; Who toils as every man should toil, For fair reward, erect and free. These are the men-The best of men-These are the men we mean to be.

A CHANSON FOR CANTON. John Chinaman a rogue is born, The laws of truth he holds in scorn ; About as great a brute as can Encumber the earth is John Chinaman.

Sing Yeh, my cruel John Chinaman, Sing Yeb, my stubborn John Chinaman; Not Cobden himself can take off the ban By humanity laid on John Chinaman. With their little pig-eyes and their large pig-tails; And their diet of rats, dogs, slugs and snails; All seems to be game in the frying-pan

Of that nasty feeder, John Chinaman. Sing lie-tea, my sty John Chinaman, No fightee, my coward John Chinaman, John Bull has a chance-let him, if he can, Somewhat open the eyes of John Chinaman! HT MCCORMICK'S IMPROVED REAP-
